

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Rauchegger

First name(s)

Clara

Country

Austria

Current professional position

Senior Assistant Professor, Department of Legal Theory and Future of Law/Digital Science Center, University of Innsbruck

Position on the MB

Alternate Member

Term of office on MB

June 2023 – July 2026

Additional Information

Dr Clara Rauchegger is a Senior Assistant Professor of EU Law and Digital Technology Law at the University of Innsbruck. She joined the University of Innsbruck from the European University Institute in Florence, where she was a Max Weber Postdoctoral Fellow for two years. She holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge, where she was a member of Trinity Hall. Her PhD thesis examined the interaction of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and domestic constitutional rights. Clara's expertise lies in European Union law, with a particular focus on fundamental rights protection and technology regulation. At the University of Innsbruck, she is a member of the Digital Science Center, a research center that examines digital innovation from an interdisciplinary perspective. Clara has won several prestigious research awards, including the University of Innsbruck France Focus Award, the Eduard Wallnöfer Award and the Research Award of the City of Innsbruck.