Additional Information

I have about 20 years of academic and practical experience in the field of international human rights and humanitarian law. In the period 2018-2021, I served as Director of the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights (University of Oslo) and in the period 2015-2018 led the Master program on human rights. My academic experience involves teaching, research, and publishing in the field of human rights. As to teaching, I have developed and have taught various courses on human rights, have supervised Master students and PhD candidates, have coached moot court teams, and have written a textbook in Albanian. I have organized several inter-disciplinary PhD courses on various human rights topics, including its methodology. My research covers various human rights issues, in the form of articles, book chapters, and edited books.

CURRICULUM VITAE

My experience with the UN Human Rights Committee during 2019-2022 will be useful to the work of the Scientific Committee. Among others, I was involved in the State reporting procedure for many countries, including EU countries, and in processing individual complaints concerning various human rights issues, including the right to a fair trial, freedom of expression and assembly, freedom of religion or belief, deportation, climate change and so on.
