4 Report from the 57th Executive Board Meeting and on the Chairperson's activities Report of the Director on the work of FRA in the last period

Main Conclusions:

MINUTES MB MEETING

- 4.1 The Chairperson reported back on the 57th EB meeting, which took place in the morning to prepare for the 34th MB meeting.
- 4.2 She also reminded the members of the adoption by written procedure of the EB decision 2020/03 on the organisation of the 34th MB meeting via videoconference.
- 4.3 The Director welcomed the first participation in the MB of EIGE's Director, Ms Carlien Scheele.
- 4.4 He informed the Board on the Agency's past activities since the last MB meeting in June. He introduced the Director's report and briefed about highlights from the five FRA programmes and internal governance issues. He drew attention to the fact that the Agency had been able to deliver on its main commitments despite the COVID-19 situation.
- 4.5 In presenting the Agency's work, he emphasised the level of impact on fundamental rights policy making, as well as increasing media coverage. He finally elaborated on measures taken in response to the COVID-19 pandemic and alerted the Board to related risks for the Agency's operational work such as for the timely implementation of survey field work. The Board also received an update on the internal working arrangements in response to the COVID-19 situation.

5 Update and discussion on EU-Fundamental Rights Policy developments

Main Conclusions:

- 5.1 The Chair gave the floor to the member of the Commission (COM) for an update on on-going Commission policy work.
- 5.2 COM drew attention to the President of the Commission' State of the Union speech having a significant focus on upholding fundamental rights, common values, equality including equal treatment for LGBTI persons, and combating antisemitism.
- 5.3 COM highlighted that this is reflected in new actions, including an anti-racism action plan, the pact on migration and asylum, the forthcoming adoption of the first annual rule of law report (scheduled on 30 September), a new Charter strategy (to be adopted at the end of 2020), a new EU Roma strategic framework for equality, inclusion and participation (October 2020) and a new LGBTI+ equality strategy to be adopted next year. COM underlined that FRA's evidence and assistance to support Member States feature prominently in all these strategies and action plans.
- 5.4 The Board was informed about the upcoming rights of the child forum, which is meant to provide input for a new rights of the child strategy.
- 5.5 COM thanked FRA for its contribution to the recent German Presidency conference on antisemitism.
- 5.6 The MB was informed that the Commission is working towards presenting a proposal for the Digital Services Act by end of 2020 and a legislative proposal on AI in the first quarter of 2021.
- 5.7 COM updated the MB on the proposed review of the FRA Founding Regulation.
