PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Why do we collect personal data?

We collect personal data in the context of an event or a meeting organisation as well as to inform participants of any follow-up activities after the event. Such follow up activities may include sharing the minutes or eventual final statement adopted during the events, as well as sharing pictures and / or videos of the event with participants.

2. What kind of personal data does the Agency collect?

The Agency collects personal data related to identification and contact details like first name, last name, title, function, country of establishment, email address/es, telephone number, type, name and address of the employer/organisation, and accessibility needs to join the event. The Agency has a contract with framework contractor Adria Congrex to implement contracted tasks for the benefit of the participants. In order for Adria Congrex to implement the contract, including undertake travel reservations, they will need to know the date of birth and the gender of the traveller according to the requirements by the International Advanced Passenger Information System ("APIS"). In some cases, bank account information maybe requested during the registration process in case the costs a participant has advanced are to be reimbursed where so agreed with the FRA and Adria Congrex. Minutes, photos and videos of the event could be collected as well in some cases. In such cases, you will be notified during the registration process.

3. How do we collect your personal data?

The FRA will process personal data that were collected via an online registration form.

4. Who is responsible for the processing of your personal data?

The FRA. The Head of Unit Technical Assistance & Capacity Building is responsible for this processing operation.

5. Which is the legal basis for this processing operation?

Organising various events is necessary for the functioning of the FRA. Therefore, the processing is lawful under Article 5(a) of the Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725. In addition, since the participation in the events is not mandatory, the processing of the personal data is also in accordance with Article 5(d) of Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725.

6. Who can see your data?

Selected FRA staff responsible for the organisation of the meeting can see your data. In case the participant's travel is paid by FRA, the meeting management company contracted by FRA will receive, via an online registration form, the data necessary to carry out contracted services including accommodation, travel and dinner arrangements. To do so,

PRIVACY NOTICE

FRA's contractor will require your first name, last name, title, function, country of establishment, email address/es, telephone number, type, name and address of the employer/organisation, and accessibility needs to join the event. As part of carrying out contracted tasks, the meeting organizer will convey to the hotel a list of names (first name, last name) of those whose accommodation FRA will financially cover. Additionally, to enter the event venue, the local counterparts at the Dutch National Police Headquarters will receive a list of the visitors (first name, last name).

7. Do we share your data with other organisations?

Personal data is processed by the FRA only. In case we need to share your data with third parties, you will be notified about who your personal data has been shared with. FRA will inform you about any other contractors not mentioned in this privacy notice prior to requesting personal information from you.

8. Do we intend to transfer your personal data to Third Countries/International Organizations

No.

9. When we will start the processing operation?

We will start the processing operation once you have registered to participate in our event.

10. How long do we keep your data?

The FRA will keep your personal data for up to six months from the closing date of the event that you attend.

11. How can you control your data?

You can access, modify or delete your personal data by sending an email request to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu

12. How valuable is your consent for us?

Since the participation in the event is not mandatory, the processing is lawful because "the data subject has unambiguously given his or her consent". The consent will be collected through the registration email, in a separate and distinct manner, similarly to other FRA events. Moreover, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, and we will delete your data or restrict its processing.

13. Your data protection rights

Under data protection law, you have rights we need to make you aware of. The rights available to you depend on our reason for processing your information. You are not required to pay any charges for exercising your rights.

14. Can you access your data?

You have the right to receive confirmation whether or not we process your personal data. Furthermore, you can have access to such data, as well as obtain copies of your data undergoing processing, at any time and free of charge, by sending an email request to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu.

PRIVACY NOTICE

15. Can you modify your data?

You have the right to ask us to rectify your data you think is inaccurate or incomplete at any time by sending an email request to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu.

You have the right to update or correct your personal data at any time.

16. Can you restrict us from processing your data?

You have the right to block the processing of your personal data at any time by sending an email request to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu when you contest the accuracy of your personal data or when the Agency no longer needs the data for completing its tasks. You can also block the processing activity when the operation is unlawful, and you oppose to the erasure of the data.

17. Can you delete your data?

You have the right to ask us to delete your data at any time by sending an email request to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu when the processing activity is unlawful.

18. Can you request the transfer of your data to a third party?

This only applies to information you have given us. You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us from one organisation to another, or give it to you.

The right only applies if we are processing information based on your consent or under a contract or in talks about entering into a contract and the processing is automated.

You are not required to pay any charges for exercising your rights. We have (time period) to respond to you.

19. Do you have the right to object?

Yes, you have the right to object at any time by sending an email request to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu when you have legitimate reasons relating to your particular situation.

Moreover, you will be informed before your information is disclosed for the first time to third parties, or before it is used on their behalf, for direct marketing purposes.

The Agency will address your requests within 15 working days from the receipt of the request.

20. Do we do automated decision making, including profiling?

No.

21. What security measures are taken to safeguard your personal data?

The Agency has several security controls in place to protect your personal data from unauthorised access, use or disclosure. We keep your data stored on computer systems with limited access to a specified audience only.

22. What can you do in the event of a problem?

a) The first step is to notify the Agency by sending an email to ene.patterson@fra.europa.eu and ask us to take action.

b) The second step, if you obtain no reply from us or if you are not satisfied with it, contact our data protection officer (DPO) at dpo@fra.europa.eu.

PRIVACY NOTICE

c) At any time you can lodge a complaint with the EDPS at <http://www.edps.europa.eu>, who will examine your request and adopt the necessary measures.

23. How do we update our privacy notice?

We keep our privacy notice under regular review to make sure it is up to date and accurate.
